Diplomacy and International Relations

Mission

Consistent with Alfaisal's vision, the College of Law & International Relations is dedicated to achieving excellence in legal education, advancing scholarship, and providing comprehensive training. With that, the Diplomacy and International Relations program will be a premier program that seamlessly connects legal education with global affairs, through the development of a new cohort of legal professionals who excel in legal principles while possessing a profound understanding of international relations and global governance. By merging extensive legal training with a focus on diplomacy and international issues, the college will equip graduates to thrive in various fields, including international law, diplomacy, and global policymaking.

Vision

To shape future global leaders through innovative education and research in political and international relations, addressing global challenges with diverse perspectives, by providing an international learning environment that equips students with the skills and knowledge to lead in foreign policy, diplomacy, and security, while fostering critical thinking and global collaboration..
